

WILSON STREET

RESIDENCE

The Wilson Street renovation opens the rear half of the house to better engage with the backyard. A two stage sloping roof not only allows more light to reach the neighbour's glass roof but is also a contemporary roof form within a heritage area of inner Sydney. A new central courtyard has been designed to let more natural light into the house while creating a private intimate external space.

01

02

03

04

01 View of deck from kitchen 02 View of deck from the street 03 View of kitchen
04 View of courtyard

Anderson Architecture.com.au ph:9319 0224 nominated architect simon anderson reg. no. 6986